

The Gingerbread Man

One day a little old woman makes a gingerbread man.

She takes him out of the oven.
“Delicious!”

But he's alive! He jumps up and runs away.
"Don't eat me!" - he cries.

He runs and runs. The old woman chases the Gingerbread Man.
“Stop! Come back!” she shouts.

But the Gingerbread Man is very fast.
“Stop! Come back!” - shouts the woman.

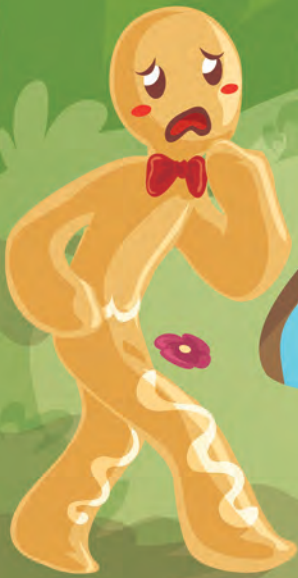

The Gingerbread Man meets a cow.
The cow chases the Gingerbread Man.
“Stop! Come here! Moo, moo!”

The Gingerbread Man meets a horse.
The horse chases the Gingerbread Man.
“Stop! Come back! Neigh, neigh!”

Then the Gingerbread Man comes to a river. "Oh dear! I'm trapped!"

Then he sees a fox. The fox says:
“I can carry you across the river.
Jump onto my tail!”

So he jumps onto the fox's tail.

But the Gingerbread Man's feet get wet and they fall off. "Jump onto my back!" - says the fox.

So he jumps onto the fox's back.

But the Gingerbread Man's legs get wet and they fall off. "Jump onto my head!" - says the fox.

So he jumps on the fox's head.
The fox opens his mouth... and snap!

And that is the end of the Gingerbread Man.
